From the GM, VDPL Project, HPCL/VDPL/BVK/Alt Land, dated: 10.10.2019 received through CSP No.14295/CSP/2019.

O R D E R:

In the letter read above, the General Manager, HPCL has stated that as a part of VDPL project they have extending pipeline from Vijayawada in AP to Dharmapuri in Tamilnadu (16" diameter and 700 km long) with an investment of Rs.2677 Crores of which Rs.1900 crores will be invested in the state of Andhra Pradesh. Out of the approx. 700 km, nearly 620 km pipeline is in the state of the Andhra Pradesh. They are pursuing with state Government of Tamil Nadu for acquiring approx. 130 acres of land near Dharmapuri for construction of Marketing storage terminal with Rail/Road loading facilities. The land acquisition is facing numerous hurdles.

2. Target completion for this project is March 2021 and this is a prestigious PRAGATI project being monitored by PMG, Delhi. As an alternative plan, they have identified couple of alternate land in Kuppam Mandal, Madnepalli Revenue Division of Chittoor District, AP, for construction of Marketing Terminal. Approx. 100-130 acres of land would be needed with feasibility to construct 900m long railway siding.

3. The General Manager, VDPL Project has requested to constitute a Negotiation/ facilitation committee consisting of District Revenue Authorities and HPCL officials for Direct negotiation with land owners and also requested to include the following members from HPCL in the committee:

1) Chief General Manager- Pipeline Projects, HPCL
2) DGM- Procurement, HPCL, Projects & Pipelines SBU.
3) DGM- Commercial, HPCL, Projects & Pipelines SBU
4) Sr. Manager/Manager-Legal, HPCL.

4. After careful examination, Government hereby Constitute Negotiation Committee with the following members to procure private lands directly by negotiating with the private land owners who are willing to sell their lands for construction of Marketing Terminal of HPCL for their VDPL project. The Committee shall negotiate with the land owners by following due procedure.
